

Climate Parliament

Legislators working worldwide to combat climate change

Regional Involvement – What can MPs do?

- Regional capacity building and knowledge sharing
 - regional energy assessments and sharing of best practices
- Energy Governance
 - harmonization of legal and institutional framework : Energy policies, Renewable energy laws/policies, agencies etc - supplementing individual national energy strategies with a regional strategies
 - preparation of common regional positions and strategies in multilateral and international trade negotiations
- Regional energy development, Competitiveness and Business Climate
 - corridor approach to clean energy development to manage high capital costs to build additional power generating capacity
 - regional approach to energy security
 - legislation promoting renewable energy generation (micro to large)
 - legislation promoting environmental and climate-friendly infrastructure
 - Support regional interconnectors to enhance regional connectivity
 - Collaboration on policy geared towards the attainment of reliable power supply with improved availability (regional and national targets)
 - Creation of ring fenced funds for renewable energy and rural electrification (regional and national targets for electrification)
 - Regional approach to Increase budgetary allocations to renewable energy